Vol. XXIX, No. 8.

SUPPLEMENT.

April 27, 1883.

A Weather Prophecy.

Next summer, I think, will be dreadfully hot, And I'd just as soon tell you my reason as not: Mamma went this morning and bought for herself

Two beautiful fans, which she put on the shelf:

Then I watched an old lady who's boarding next door,

And really and truly she came home with four!

D. C. L., in St. Nicholas for May.

Aphorisms From the Quarters.

Your luck aint allus ekul to de lenk o' your fishin'-pole.

Grass don't grow high roun' de corn-crib.

De man aint put togedder right dat don't lub his own dorg.

It takes a hones' miller to keep lean shotes.

Don't kill de old goose in sight o' de fedder-bed.

De full moon is a po' han' to keep secrets.

Old hen got 'nough larnin' to tell her own chillun in de dark.—Brie a brae in St. Nicholas for May.

A CONGRESSIONAL BON MOT.—Whatever hard things we may say about Congress, we have to confess in our just moments that it differs from the poor in this world in one respect, we can not always have it with us. Congress has risen for good, contrary to the wide-spread opinion that the late body was incapable of rising, and left us only the precious legacy of its records—precious, but disappointing to the historian, for some of its best muds are not in the Congressional Globe. During the last days a western member of the House, vindicating himself upon the floor, struck a Henry Clay attitude, and cried out, with all the fervor of original conviction, "Sir, I'd rather be right than be President." "Don't worry yourself about that," shouted another member across the aisle; "you'll never be either."—Editor's Drawer, in Harper's Magazine, for May.

Soldiers, Attention! Pensions to All.

Comrades, File Your Claims with an Ex-Soldier!

Soldiers that were disabled by wounds, disease, accident or otherwise, the loss of a finger or toe, piles, varicose veins, chronic diarrhoea, rupture, varicocele, loss of sight of one or both eyes, or partially so, loss of hearing, disease of the heart, falling back of the muscles, rheumatism, fistula in ano, chorea, or any other disease or disability, if but slight, gives you a pension. Widows, children, dependent fathers and mothers of soldiers dying in the service, or afterwards, of disease or wounds contracted in the service, are entitled to pensions. I procure pensions where discharge papers are lost. New discharges obtained where lost. Under the new law pensions are increased from $8 to $72 per month. Desertion does not operate as a bar to a pension. Back pay, lost horse claims, ration money while in prison, and bounties promptly collected. War claims of every description prosecuted promptly and successfully. Not five cases in a hundred are rejected if properly prosecuted. Come to my office and I will show you claims that I have got through in nine days that were prosecuted by other attorneys for seventeen years and rejected in their hands. My office is always open, and advice as free as the air of heaven. My terms are like the old Indian's,—"No duck, no dinner." Letters of inquiry should contain stamps and they will receive prompt attention.

Being an ex-soldier of a Michigan Regiment, and with seventeen years practice, I claim to know the business. My fee in every case is $10, if successful. Special attention paid to Increase of Pensions, and crowding through claims that are now dragging in other hands. If you have claims that are dragging, write me or come and see me, and I will help you through with them.

Before purchasing Monuments or Tombstones, investigate the matter a little. Agents talk any and everything to induce you to give your order.

I employ no agents, and for that reason you can save one-fourth in price. Call and see me.
